residential applications

The expressions series makes the possibilities endless, with bold design features and patterns that will suit a variety of residential applications. Have the ability to create stunning feature walls with ease, which will bring your individual ideas to life.

choose your pattern

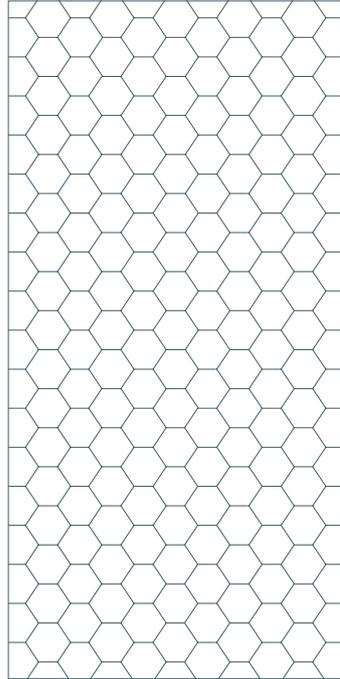

Add a touch of style to your next project with the distinctive range of patterns available in the expression series.

All patterns are offered on the general purpose pre-primed board, meaning you can combine with your chosen palette.

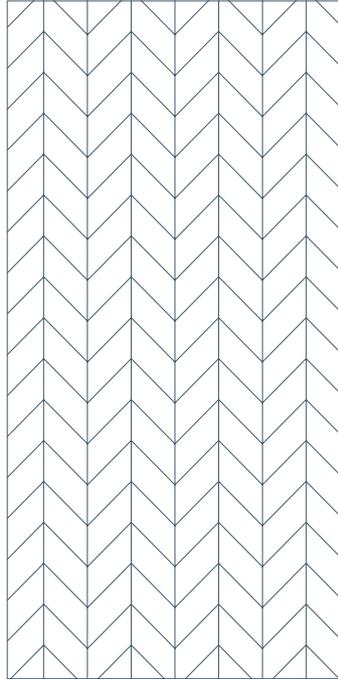

Or you can style in a modern veneer finish combined with a pattern to make a bold statement.

Expression Black offers a warm veneer finish with a visually striking black pattern.
